COMMAND PROGRAMS

- Command Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) Point of Contact (POC) Training: This workshop helps command POCs run their program efficiently and ensure that the enrolled EFMP families are equipped with the correct information regarding paperwork, contacts, OPNAVINST 1754.2F requirements, and current resources available to EFMP participants in the San Diego area. To register call 619-759-1223

- Command Financial Specialist (CFS) Initial Training: All Navy commands must appoint and ensure training for an adequate number of Command Financial Specialists (CFSs) to meet OPNAVINST requirements. Invaluable training ensures CFSs have the latest tools to serve as effective financial specialists for their respective commands. Pre-registration is required. For registration email: ffsc_cfs_pfm@us.navy.mil
- Command Sponsor Coordinator Training: All commands must appoint a Sponsor Coordinator to oversee the support provided to incoming and outgoing Sailors. Per OPNAVINST 1740.3E, Sponsor Coordinators should receive initial training from FFSC to learn more about the program, policy requirements and resources for Sailors and families facing a Permanent Change of Station (PCS). Sponsor Coordinators are encouraged to contact FFSC for Welcome Aboard Packet information and to schedule Command Sponsor Training.
- Command Sponsor Training: This class is designed to help you be an effective Command Sponsor. We will review the roles and responsibilities of the Sponsor and discuss each stage of the program. We will also provide you with resources and area-specific information to assist you with your incoming personnel.
- Family Care Plan Coordinator Training: Family Care Plans (FCPs) are a critical tool in ensuring personal and family readiness for any type of absence, crisis, or emergency. This workshop is designed to assist with the establishment of a collateral duty billet as Family Care Plan (FCP) Coordinator within the command. The FCP Coordinator manages the command's FCP Program, ensuring eligible Service Members maintain updated FCPs and providing resources as required in OPNAVINST 1740.4E, US Navy Family Care Policy. This course provides lessons learned, resources, program implementation tips, and networking opportunities to FCP Coordinators.

• COMMAND PROGRAMS

- FAP Triad Desk Brief: (Also known as - FAP Leadership Orientation Training): This two-hour training fulfills the FAP training requirements (both OPNAV 1742.2C and SURFPAC CRAV) for new Commanding Officers to be oriented to the Family Advocacy Program in the local area within 90 days of taking command. This class also meets the annual training requirements for Senior Enlisted Leaders.
- FFSC Overview: FFSC Overview offers a 30-45 min foundational understanding of programs offered by the Fleet and Family Support Center.
- Sailors Assisting Intercept for Life (SAIL): Sailors Assisting Intercept for Life (SAIL) equips Suicide Prevention Coordinators, or anyone interested, with vital tools and training to proactively engage and support at-risk individuals within the naval community, fostering a culture of empathy and intervention to safeguard mental well-being.

• DEPLOYMENT SUPPORT

- Couples and Deployment: This workshop equips couples with practical tools and strategies to navigate the emotional challenges of deployment-related separation. Participants will explore ways to strengthen their relationship, manage stress, and maintain meaningful connection while apart.
- Helping Children Navigate Homecoming: Deployment can create an “experience gap” between service members and their children, leading to uncertainty and emotional challenges during reintegration. Helping Children Navigate Homecoming is a workshop designed for non-deployed parents and caregivers who play a vital role in preparing children for the return of a deployed parent. This session provides practical guidance on easing transitions, rebuilding parent-child connections, and supporting children’s emotional responses to change. Participants will gain tools to manage expectations, encourage healthy communication, and foster a positive homecoming experience for the whole family.

- Let’s Get Real About FRGs: The Family Readiness Group (FRG) — just three words, but they carry powerful potential to strengthen support for our sailors and the families who serve alongside them.

Let’s Get Real About FRGs offers a relaxed and easy introduction to the Family Readiness Program, highlighting essential elements from FRG Basic Training. Whether you’re curious about joining your command’s FRG or considering starting one yourself, this session will provide clarity, guidance, and resources to get you in the right direction. Come be part of the conversation — and discover how FRGs can make a real difference!

- Reintegrating with Your Partner: This workshop supports spouses and partners in navigating the reintegration process after deployment. Participants will explore four key areas—reestablishing emotional connection, celebrating personal and relationship growth, understanding the effects of operational stress, and restoring intimacy—to promote a healthy, resilient partnership.
- Supporting Children During Deployment: This workshop equips nondeployed parents and caregivers with practical strategies to support their children through the challenges of deployment. Participants will explore tools and resources to foster emotional resilience, maintain healthy routines, and strengthen family connections—helping their families not just manage, but thrive during deployment.

• FAP EDUCATION

- Healthy Boundaries: This interactive workshop explores what it means to set and maintain healthy boundaries in all areas of life. Learn to identify boundary types, recognize red flags, and communicate clearly and assertively. Through discussion and real-life scenarios, participants will gain tools to enhance their relationships, protect their well-being, and align their actions with their values.

- Healthy Coping: This workshop will help participants define coping and identify the difference between healthy and unhealthy coping skills to better manage stress and strong emotions. Participants will learn about four main types of coping and how to assess the effectiveness of their coping skills. The ultimate goal is for each person to develop a diverse, values-aligned coping skills toolkit and practice techniques to build lasting resilience for ongoing stress management.
- Healthy Relationships: Learn to recognize the signs of healthy and unhealthy relationships. This class provides tools to enhance healthy relationships and educate Sailors and family members on how to successfully nurture intimate relationships and identify unhealthy relationships behaviors.

• OMBUDSMAN SUPPORT

- Ombudsman Basic Training (OBT): Ombudsman Basic Training (OBT) is the required training for all Navy Ombudsman. It is a standardized multi-day training consisting of nine modules outlined in the Ombudsman Program Manual and OPNAVINST 1750-1G CH-2. Command Leadership should register their Ombudsman to attend training by contacting the Ombudsman Coordinator at sdffsombudsman@us.navy.mil Command leadership and their spouses are also welcome to attend all or part of the training. Pre-registration is required. Command leadership and their spouses are also welcome to attend all or part of the training. Pre-registration is required.

This workshop provides practical, evidence-based strategies for understanding and managing anger, enhancing emotional resilience, and improving communication in challenging situations.
- Effective Communication: Are you an effective communicator? Learn strategies for communicating better at home and at work.
- Life After the Uniform: Preparing for life beyond military service can be both exciting and overwhelming. Whether you are a service member who is retiring or separating, or a spouse supporting the transition, this workshop equips you with the tools, strategies, and resources to confidently navigate the process together. Learn how to plan for the future, support your family, and embrace the next chapter with resilience and purpose.
- Mind Body Mental Fitness: The primary goal of Mind-Body Mental Fitness (MBMF) is to enhance the mind, body, spirit and social domains in one's life. In this session, discover the essential role of human connection in resilience and well-being. Participants will assess their support networks, learn empathetic listening techniques, and recognize different communication styles. Strengthen your ability to foster trust, empathy, and mutual support in any environment.

- Mindful Living: This Mindful Living workshop offers a high-level overview for service members and their families on how to incorporate mindfulness into daily life as a form of self-care. Through interactive discussions and scenario-based learning, participants will be introduced to the core concept of mindfulness, which is the practice of intentionally paying attention to the present moment without judgment. The session explores a variety of mindful practices, including breathwork, meditation, and mindful eating, providing practical tools to enhance mental, emotional, and physical well-being and develop healthier daily routines.
- Navy Spouse 101: Learn the basics of Navy life and how to thrive as a military spouse.
- Pivoting with a Purpose: Military life is defined by constant change. Whether you're facing a PCS, a deployment, a career pause, or an internal shift in your identity, these moments require us to pivot. Pivoting with a Purpose is an interactive 45-minute session designed to help the military-connected community navigate these transitions with intention and confidence. By focusing on what we can control, we will explore how to practice mindfulness, cultivate gratitude, and leverage your personal strengths to build resilience. You will leave this workshop with practical coping tools to stay grounded and empowered to navigate any change with clarity and confidence.
- Resources Exist, Asking Can Help (REACH): This workshop is to cultivate a new mindset around mental health and help-seeking in the military by encouraging Service Members to reach out for help and not suffer in silence. The workshop focuses on empowering service members to use resources without worrying about perceived or real barriers that may stand in the way and to not give up until they find the help that they need.

PERSONAL FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION

- Responsible Anger Management (RAM): Identify the root of your anger and learn skills to take control of your anger. Redirect your emotions in positive ways which, ultimately, can help you build more effective strategies for success at work and at home. This is a one day 8-hour interactive class.
- SafeTalk: safeTALK strengthens suicide alertness skills and prepares learners to become Suicide Safety Connectors – people who can notice signs of suicide risk, ask directly about suicide, listen with care and connect the person to further help.
- Stress Management: Stress management secrets that will change your outlook. Make time to invest in you!
- Suicide Prevention: A Suicide Prevention Class offers invaluable education and practical tools, equipping participants with the knowledge and skills needed to recognize warning signs, intervene effectively, and provide compassionate support, ultimately saving lives within communities.
- Time Management: Are you as organized as you want to be? Are you strong at prioritizing? We want to help you get to where you want to be. Learn strategies for managing time effectively as well as understanding the value of prioritizing.

PERSONAL FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT
